common elements, including in windows, by any unit owner or occupant without written permission of the Association, except that flags and "For Sale" and "For Rent" signs may be displayed in accordance with subsection 10.7 of the Declaration.

(h) No inflammable, combustible, or explosive fluid, chemical or substance, shall be kept in any unit or limited common element, except those necessary and suited for normal household use. Unless expressed permission is granted by the Board of Directors, items used for landscape maintenance must be kept in designated areas.

(i) Unit owners, residents, their families, guests, servants, employees, agents, or visitors shall not at any time or for any reason whatsoever enter upon or attempt to enter upon the roof of the building.

(j) small exterior plantings shall be permitted subject to the approval of the Horticulture Committee. Requests must be in writing to the Board, which will be referred to the committee

2. ALTERATION OF CONDOMINIUM: Unit owners are specifically cautioned that their right to make any addition, change, alteration, or decoration to the exterior appearance of any portion of the Condominium is subject to the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, and is also subject to prior approval of the Association. For example, no unit owner may install screen doors, or apply any type of film or covering to the inside or outside of window or door glass without the prior approval of the Association. All such additions, changes or alterations must be presented in writing to the board of Directors for approval, accompanied by written plans when requested or drawings and specifications. The Board of Directors shall approve such requests only if the Association is protected against, or indemnified as to construction liens and/or claims arising from such work.

3. EMERGENCIES IN OWNER'S ABSENCE: Any unit owner who plans to be absent from his unit for an extended period of time defined as more than 72 hours must prepare his unit prior to his departure in the following manner:

(a) By securing all furniture, plants and other objects in the lanai; and

(b) By responsibly insuring that water lines entering each unit are secure from leakage, especially the water heater, ice maker, washing machine and dishwasher; and

(c) By designating a responsible caretaker to care for his unit should his unit suffer any damage caused by storms, hurricanes, winds or other violent acts of nature. The Manager and the Association shall be provided with the name of each unit owner's aforesaid designated caretaker.

(e) Shut off the water line to the unit at the main water shut off, and electrically shut off the water heater.

4. PETS: Harboring pets is restricted under Section 10.2 of the Declaration. The Board may impose additional reasonable restrictions upon how and where pets may be permitted upon the common elements.

5. PARKING OF VEHICLES: Vehicle Parking is restricted under Section 10.5 of the Declaration. Parking is not intended for the storage of boats, motorcycles, recreational vehicles, motor homes, trailers, semitrailers, house trailers, campers, truck campers, trucks, non-operational or invalidly licensed automobiles. No repairs or maintenance of vehicles may be performed, except emergency repairs. Any vehicles parked in violation of the parking restrictions are subject to towing, with the owner of the vehicle responsible for all costs of towing.

6. SOLICITATION: There shall be no solicitation by any person anywhere in the buildings or the common elements for any cause whatsoever unless invited by the unit owner to be solicited, or specifically authorized by the Board. There shall be no soliciting of donations, by anyone, from any source, that would be used as raffle prizes.

7. FOOD AND BEVERAGES: Food and beverages may be consumed in the common elements at the personal discretion of the owners. Owners are responsible for leaving the common elements used in a clean condition. Frequent violators may have this privilege revoked by the Board. Outdoor cooking is restricted to areas designated for that purpose.
